

Andrew & Norman Price, Owners.

"Montani Semper Liberi!"

Andrew Price, Editor

$1.00 PER YEAR

VOL. 15, NO. 37

MARLINTON, WEST VIRGINIA, APRIL 8, 1898.

(To be Continued.)

her bows.

in 54, 48, 42, 38 inch

that we pay

ulius Nines & Son BALTIMORE, MD. on this Pap

LAW CARDS.

N. C. McNEIL. ATTORNEY AT LAW,

MARLINTON, W. VA.

Will practice in the Courts of Poc hontas and adjoining counties and in the Court of Appeals of the State of West Virginia.

L. M. McCLINTIO, ATTORNEY AT LAW,

MARLINTON, W. VA.

Will practice in the Courts of Poce hontas and adjoining counties and i the Supreme Court of Appeals.

H. S. RUCKER,

ATTY F. AT LAW & NOTARY PUBLI

HUNTERSVILLE, W. VA.

Will practice in the courts of Poca hontas county and Court of Appeals.

J. W. ARBUCKLE.

ATTORNEY AT LAW, LEWISBURG, W. VA.

Will practice in the courts of Gr

Lige Jacobs was the captain, or For The Pocahontas Times rather head-man, of the despera- Casey's that evening. Doctor Cadoes, who had seized the opportu- sey had been out hiding the horses. The Treasure Trove. ed with other people's lives and such a man as he described riding signs of any advance on the part of There was no telling what they had IX

RS CASEY remembered a large force of Confederates who done or would do with him. Mrs Harvey perfectly. He were camped forty miles south of Casey remembered that Harvey had called at her house the Federal forces. One evening had spent a year or two in that the day he had been separated he saw an officer in the Confeder- neighborhood, but did not know from Weston's father. She was ate uniform ride up to a farm what had become him. While he the first one to give him news of house and dismount. . His horse was pursuing his inquiries, Weston what had happened. Her husband was put in the barn to be fed, and spent most of his time at the widwas a Southern sympathizer, tho' Jacobs got it out shortly after dark ow Casey's. It was not remarka. he was too old for active services, and rode it away. He collected a ble that he became an inmate of ed in groups as it is so numerous Besides he was a physician and it half-dozen of his men and lay near the family by simply walking up and widely distributed and derivwas absolutely necessary that he the road all night, in ambush for to the house one evening on a matshould stay at home and attend to the young officer. In addition to ter of business. He was in a counhis practice. At the time we speak the dispatches which the young try where a man might ride up to of, a raid had been made into that man carried, Lige wanted his life, stay all night and make it his home neighborhood and several regi- as he did every one who wore the for years. ments of Union troops occupied a uniform, and he hated all such enstrong position on the turnpike, emies with the blind and unreasonprepared to check the advance of ing hatred of a savage.

any Confederate troops who might Dawn beginning to show in the use that road. With such a force east, the men left their place of con of troops present, the home guards cealment in some low bush on the disbanded, and went into hiding. roadside, and went on a mile or so To fully understand the situa- where the road wound round the tion of the country, the reader base of a steep rocky mountain. must remember that in West Vir. On the top of a cliff the men lay ginia, especially in the central sec- down and waited. Soon after dawn tions, the people were divided the courier appeared in the dis-courts and no law. The rule was lay secured another horse. He broke hundreds of pint-bottles of fourth remove. very much like Rob Roy's, that came in a long swinging trot. those might take who had the pow- The morning sun was just tinter, and those might keep who ing the tops of the hills. Jacob's could. It was still Virginia, and command was that no one should the section around Prattville, the fire but himself. With his long majority of citizens sided with the mountain rifle resting in the crev- West. This brave fellow could Thomas Creek, near Dunmore, South. The men who stayed at ice between two great boulders, he have escaped but he lingered in where Peter Carpenter now lives. home were in a state of excitement felt the same thrill of excitement hope of securing important papers.

and the worst passions showed the hunter experiences who sees a He did his duty. Will the mur. Alexander Benson, and settled in themselves, and many terrible deer coming for a long distance. der of the 257 brave American Illinois. things happened because of the straight to the muzzle of his gun. sailors and 2 officers ever be avengwar, that were not of the war. The For fifty yards, Jacobs has had the ed?

home guards were good to harass gray coat in his rifle sights. As a luke-warm patriot when the reg- he comes closer he changes the Two Maine hunters were tram- Susan McLaughlin became Mrs ular soldiers were at a distance, aim to the head and when only a pled to death by an infuriated Kyle Holcomb, and went to West but at the first sign of hostilities few yards from him, he gives a moose. Both skulls were fractur- Virginia.

Harvey came to the home of the Say White White Manual BIOGRAPHIC NOTES. nity of the war to act as they pleas- Mrs Casey told him of having seen S John ficLaughlin-Pioneer of Jacksons River.

> COR the past seventy-five or eighty years the McLaughlin name has been a familiar one among our people. For this reason the relationship so long identified with our county history deserves special mention therefor. This relationship may be considered from a varied tho related an-

John McLaughlin, the ancestor of several Pocahontas families of that name, was a native of Ireland, and settled on Jackson's River, seven or eight miles south of Mon-NEW YORK NEWS LETTER. terey, and was one of the pioneer HE Kentucky and Kearsarge to the Revolution. The lands he

Newport News, Va. The his son, John McLaughlin, Jr. Kentucky was christened by Goy- His family consisted of six sons ernor Bradley's daughter with a and five daughters. In reference bottle of pure spring water, but to these persons the following parbefore she reached the sea the su- ticulars have been mainly learned perstitious sailors and the majority from Mrs Morgan Grimes, one of against themselves. There were no tance. He had after a night's de- of the 500 Kentuckians present the descendants by the third or > prime old Kentucky whiskey over Margaret McLaughlin became Illinois soon after his marriage. Mrs William Carpenter and lived His wife's name is not rememberon Deer Creek. near Green Bank. ed. He was enthused by the gold Lieut, Jenkins' body has been Nancy McLaughlin was married excitement of 1849 and crossed the recovered. It will be sent to Key to John Carpenter and lived on plains to California in search of wealth. He was in a measure successful. It may be said too to his Jane McLaughlin became Mrs credit he was not so very hard to satisfy, and so he returned to his family and settled in Missouri. Mary McLaughlin was married to John Beverage and lived on Straight Creek near Monterey.

pigail was married to Thomas

John McLaughlin, Jr., married Sally Hamilton and spent his days at the homestead on Jackson's River, Highland County. His children were Ewing, Ada, Sally, and Letcher. John MeLan

Anglo-Saxon Union.

describing the dangers, privations. The London Mail, under the caption and hardshtps that a true soldier of "A Voice from the West," prints a had to endure in the war between poem by Affred Austin, the Poet Laueate, which is based on the idea of cothe States. operation between Great Britain and Robert McLaughlin, another son the United States.

Drs. Maybe and Mustbe.

You choose the old doctor before the young one. Why?

True, the young doctor may be experienced. But ecause you don't want to entrust your life in inexperienced the old doctor must be. You take no chances with Dr. Maybe,

You prefer experience to experiment - when you are concerned.

en Dr. Musthe is in reach. Same with medicines as with ine makers - the long-tried remedy has your confidence.

may be good - but let somebody else prove cdy must be good - judged on its record of of John the pioneer, died in early "What is the voice I hear On the wind of the Western sea? Sentinel, listen from out Cape Clear, And say what the voice may be. manhood. He is reported to have been a young man of much prom-Tis a proud, free people calling loud To a people proud and free. James McLaughlin settled in

"And it says to them, Kinsmen, hail, We severed have been too long; Now let us have done with the wornout tale, A tale of an ancient wrong, and our friendship last long as love And be stronger than death is strong.

Answer them, sons, of the self-same race, And blood of the self same clan, Let us speak with each other face to face And answer as man to man, And loyally love and trust each other As none but free men can.

"Now fling them out to the breeze Shamrock, thistle and rose, And the Star-Spangled Banner un with these, A message to friends and forst." Wherever the safe of the wind the star and wherever the safe of the wind the ast one more reason for choosing AVER'S Sarsacures. parilla in preference to any other. It has been the standard household sarsaparilla for half a century. Its record inspires. confidence - 50 years of cures. If others may be good, Ayer's Sarsaparilla must be. You take no chances when you take AYER'S Sarsaparilla. some of his letters in The Times hands.

settlers of that vicinity previously were launched March 24 at settled were lately in possession of hontas county. W. A. BRATTON. ATTORNEY AT LAW. MARLINTON, W. VA.

Prompt and careful attention give to all legal business. ANDREW PRICE, ATTORNEY AT LAW, MARLINTON, W. VA. Will be found at Times Office. SAM. B. SCOTT, JR. LAWYER, MARLINTON, W. VA.

All legal business will receive prompt H. M. LOCK RIDGE, ATTORNEY AT LAW, HUNTERSVILLE, W. VA. Prompt and careful attention given all legal work. J. HN A. PRESTON FRED. WALLACE PRESTON & WALLACE,

Attorneys at Law,

LEWISBURG, W. VA.

Will practice in the Courts of Green-brier and adjoining counties, and in the Court of Appeals of the State of man, West Virgini ..

PHYSICIANS' CARDS. DR. O. J. CAMPBELL, DENTIST.

MONTEREY, VA.

Will visit Pocahontas County at least twice a year. The exact date of his visit will appear in this paper. DR. J. H. WEYMOUTH. RESIDENT DENTIST, ELKINS, W. VA.

Will visit Pocahontas County every spring and fall. The exact date of each visit will appear in The Times.

J. M. CUNNINGHAM, M. D., PHYSICIAN & SURGEON,

MARLINTON, W. VA.

Office next door to C. A. Yeager' lotel. Residence opposite Hotel. All calls promptly answered.

WHATNE . LOUISVILLE. KY.

did, not because they aided any with a sharp report on the morn particular cause.

ing air. Jacobs, who could "cen-On the side of the Union were ter" a shot at that distance, has New York has tired of fashionable settled on Deer Creek, opening those bands which necessarily arose found the mark an easy one. The when the police regulations of the form of a man lies in the road, shot States amounted to nothing. They through the temple, and the riderwere those who shunned regular less horse gallops back to its home service, and went in gangs, armed, in an hour; the owner remarks and under the polite name of inde- gloomily that Lige Jacobe has been pendent companies, but who never at his work again, but does not inhaving been mustered in, could not vestigate.

after the war claim anything in the | The group of men rifle the body bountiful distribution of pension They look for the dispatches and money. The regular armies found find them. Having come preparthem in every locality. They mov- ed the body is carried some dist ed in the border lands and did ef. ance into the woods and buried. fective duty as scouts. In the ab- every shred of clothing having been sence of either army they kept up taken. The gang then reach their their quarrels with the home horses and start to ride into camp. guards. A man was marked for where they will make a report to death, and it was accomplished by the Colonel, in their simple, unvarlying in ambush and shooting him nished way, and the Colonel will before he knew an enemy was near. think what innocent unsophistica-

They helped many a man to the ted boys these are. They have kind of death mentioned in the fol- made him believe that they are as honest as the day is long. He feels lowing lines: like he ought to tell them that they

With noiseless tread death comes on might help their horses to a feed No plea, no prayer delivers him; From amidst busy life's unfinished from some rich farmer's crib. whether they have the money or With sudden hand it severs him; not, but desists. And ready, or not ready, no delay, Forth to his judges bar he must away. As they are speeding swiftly, they meet the young cotton plant-Scouts, refugees and adventurers formed these companies, and there six miles they turn up a grassy were deadly fouds between them and the home guards. They were on the order of desperate guerillas, young, active, adventurous.

The home guards were soldiers in a very mild and harmless form. They, too, were accused of "bush cers.

known after the war.

whacking," but such violence was not often to be attributed to the the dispatches without getting the home guards. The rebel bushwhacker was a criminal who killed and plunder. The "swamp-dragons" headquarters, who all had a pro-as the independent companies were found conviction that he had bush called, went in organized bands whacked his man and robbed him and had hiding places carefully at leisure, cross-examined him at concealed and guarded, until the great length. He was indispresence of the army made them posed to risk such another soul bold and they were sent about searching experience, even with through the country as scouts to the guileless old Colonel at camp obtain whatever information might who though him such a good, honbe useful to the commanding offiest scout. When he captured the stranger on a mule, he saw a safe The events of that day in 1862 way out of the dilemma. He made in which the carefully laid plans of him put on the clothes of the murthe two cotton planters to get to dered officer, and carried him tri-Canada were frustrated became amphantly in as a prisoner of war, and delivered the dispatches. and delivered the di they crawled into the woods, and slight cough. The courier instant- ed and the skin stripped off o came in home at nights for some ly stops, as does the deer at an un- their faces. A bull moose is a ter- Galford and lived near Dunmore thing to eat. They belonged to expected noise, and the rifle in the rible, animal when cornered and on lands lately owned by J. Herthe south because they said they hands of Lige Jacobs rings out fights to the death. vey Curry, Esq.

say. Her name is Elizabeth Mar-

...

ternoon and evening (March 25)

Grand Carnival of Sports, gotten up for the benefit of the Maine

Monument fund, Over 3000 have

L. Sullivan, who fought every others follow in her footsteps.

Major Daniel McLaughlin upon A well-known society woman in his marriage with Mary Carpenter, life and has started a typewriter lands now held by the Oliver brooffice. She has made a success, thers. In reference to his family business increasing to such an ex- the following particulars are in tent that four assistants are neces- hand:

His son, the late David Mc. koe Merquand, and she is a very Laughlin, married Jane Wanless wealthy and religious woman. May daughter of William Wanless on Back Alleghany, and settled on lands lately occupied by his sons Madison Square Garden this af- Joseph and James. [Special mention of this family in the Wanless will be the scene of the "Journal's' sketch.].

Abigail became Mrs A. Jackson Moore, on Back Alleghany. Mary Elizabeth was married to volunteered their services. John George Sutton and lived near Green Bank.

John M. McLaughlin married body for 12 years hand-running, Mary Jane Moore, daughter of W. will speak for three minutes on D. Moore on Elk. John was a Spain. Jimmy Michael, the great bicycle rider, will ride a record- Confederate soldier, taken prisonbreaking race. Bob Fitzsimmons er, and died at Camp Chase. Ohio. Margaret Jane was married to will give an exhibition in bagpunching. Yousouf, the Turk, Morgan Grimes, Esq., and lives wrestling champion of Europe, will near Mount Zion in the Hills. wrestle with the American wrestler Major Daniel McLaughlin wa much respected. He was a very Ernest Roeber. Col W. F. Cody, (Buffalo Bill) will ride. In fact hard working man and almost work every notable in the sporting line himself out clearing lands. He er riding a mule. They hustle will be on deck to help swell the was a major of the militia and him along with them. In five or fund. In the evening Pain, the was a fine-looking officer on the world-famous fireworks man, will parades that came off annually. Hugh McLaughlin, of John the hollow and arrive at the home of set off set pieces, sky rockets, Ro. Irish immigrant, married Sally man candles, colored fire, etc., etc., one of the bush-whackers. The from the roof of the Garden. But Grimes, daughter of Arthur, of cooks them some fat meat and corn he will eclipse anything he has Felix Grimes the pioneer. He gaged Girl.-Edward W. Bok ever done in a pyrotechnic way, at lived near Huntersville on lands bread. Jacobs had been exercisthe conclusion of his fireworks dis- now owned by Dr Patterson and J. factory account of how he had got play, in the shape of the battle- J. Beard. Mrs Mary Hogsett, J. dies' Home Journal. An engage ship Maine. The Garden holds man. He attempted that before, thousands and the receipts will be and Lieut James Hickman Mcand he had to lie as he had never very large. Price of admission for Laughlin, a Confederate officer who perished in the war, were his by himself for the love of killing lied before when the officers at afternoon is 50c. In the evening a trifle higher.

A thief, while trying to effect his escape on the house-tops the other day, fell down an air-shaft to River settler, married a Miss the distance of 8 stories on to a Wright and lived on Jackson's stone pavement and was killed in. River. There were two children, the policeman who was chasing Martin Sharp and lives on little him did not follow, but came down Back Creek, near Mt. Grove. H. the usual way by the stairs.

John L. Sullivan in his latest Bird, Esq., Valley Centre, Va. He stamp." GEORGE M. SANGSTER. soldier. Our readers have seen ever made in its history.

known for his jovial ways and amusing expressions, and was also somewhat eccentric in his ideas. When about to be overcome by disease and the infirmaties of au advanced age, he pointed out a spot overlooking his dwelling that is well-nigh inaccesssible and gave positive orders to have his body buried there. He seemed to abalive he generally came out "on faces. top," and so he seemed to wish to be on top when not alive. His friends saw to it that his wishes should be complied with to the very letter. A more unique burial scene never witnessed in that region. The pall-bearers on their knees and holding to the bushes and rocks with one hand and the coffin handles with the other, and the procession following on all fours, compose a scene Hunting Yachting Target the like of which may never be Camping Canceing Shooting witnessed while the world stands. Here an illustration of the ruling passion strong in death.

We close this paper hoping ere long to prepare one or two more in creation.

illustrating the McLaughlin relationship. W. T. P.

How Men Regard the Oft-Entrothal with characteristic force and earnestness in the April La-

A. McLaughlin, on Brown's creek, ment to marry he considers one of the most serious compacts in life. as sacred as marriage, and only the most extraordinary circumstances would warrant its being children. He was a popular and broken. Only one other agency-a'cohol—is responsible for more broken hearts and wrecked lives than broken betrothals. Mr Bok frankly says that a man looks upon an oft-engaged girl as he does upon a peach with much of the bloom rubbed off.

> BALD heads are becoming too requent among the middle aged. This can be prevented by the time. ly use of Hall's Vegetable Sicilian Hair Renewer.

THE West Virginia University

'A message to bond and thrall For wherever we come, we the throne of the tyrant shall read quake, And his menace be void and For you are the lords of astrong land,

And we are lords of the main

Deatness Cannot be Cured.

by local applications, as they can not reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, hor the idea of being trampled up-on and appeared to feel that his head would be secure from such indignity if he could have his grave in a spot almost impossible to reach, and so steep that erect and that is by constitutional remedies posture would be impracticables forever; nine cases out of ten are caus-inflamed condition of the mucous surcondition, hearing will be destroyed

We will give one hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by ca-tarrh) that cannot be cured by Hal's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free. F. J. CHENEY & CO., "oledo, O.

Sold by Druggists, 75c Hall's Family Pills are the best.

FOREST and STREAM THE SPORTSMAN'S JOURNAL.

Travel Fishing The Dog Adventure Nature Trapand

FOREST AND STREAM illustrated journal, devoted to the sports of the field and the encouraging in men and women of a healthy interest in outdoor re-

Weekly, 32 pages; $4 per year; $2 for six months; 10 cents a copy. Sample free. We are the largest American publishers of works on outdoor sports Send for our free illustrated catalog o

Forest and Strerm Publishing Co. 346 Broadway, New York.

prominent citizen.

seech among other things said: lives on Brown's Creek, near Hun-

Samuel McLaughlin, another son of John the early Jackson stantly. It is needless to say that Mary Jane who was married to

P. McLaughlin married Aloinda Bird, daughter of the late George

Spain could not lick a postage tersville. He was a Confederate now has the highest enrollme